PRESS RELEASE

Santa Hunt Selling Out Fast! at the Black Country Living Museum

Saturday 25th and 26th November and 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd December, 2006

Tickets to The Black Country Living Museum's Santa Hunt events are selling out fast and wannabe Santa seekers need to book their tickets fast with just seven remaining dates left to choose from. These include Saturday 25th and Sunday 26th November and the 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, and 22nd December, 2006.

Yule have yourself a merry little Christmas as the hunt for Santa takes children on a magical tour of the Museum village. A big ho! ho! ho! hit with parents and children alike the Santa Hunt keeps excitable youngsters absorbed for hours in the run up to Christmas.

Santa and his team of hardworking helpers are hidden away somewhere on the Museum site and are busy putting the finishing touches to Christmas. Christmas comes early as children turn detective and embark on a fun-filled search for Santa . Costume guides help them explore the site and follow cryptic clues and seasonal clues to Santa's secret workshop and a very special early Christmas present!

This event is pre-book only as places are limited . Tickets cost £18 per adult with one child and can be booked via the Booking Office on 0121 520 8054.
