PRESS RELEASE

Spark Memories from the Past with a Traditional Bonfire Night

Sunday 5th November, 2006

The regions most talked about Bonfire Night event makes a roaring return to the Black Country Living Museum on Sunday 5th November, 2006 where a traditional, family-orientated celebration sparks memories of the past.

The Museum's canalside village is aglow with candle and gas-light and visitors can enjoy an evening of music, entertainment and a feat of traditional fayre. A medley of musical entertainment includes a fanfare of barrel organs, showman's organs, street entertainers, and a brass band playing a host of popular tunes. The Victorian Fairground will also be in full swing.

Keep safe on November 5th and ditch the fireworks in favour of Bonfire Night without the bang and enjoy an evening WITHOUT FIREWORKS.

Admission costs: £8.50 for adults and £4.50 for children. Limited availability and tickets must be pre-booked on 0121 520 8054. Gates open at 6.30pm and close at 10.00pm.
