PRESS RELEASE

Ignite Memories from Yesteryear and Keep Safe on Bonfire Night

Sunday 5th November, 2006

Ignite memories from yesteryear with a traditional Bonfire Night Celebration on Sunday 5th November at the Black Country Living Museum. The Museum will be aglow with Black Country charm as the regions most talked about Bonfire Night gets off to a roaring start!

Keep safe on November 5th and ditch the fireworks in favour of a family-orientated celebration. The Museum's picturesque canalside village will be bathed in candle and gas-light and visitors can savour the atmosphere of bygone times. An evening of music, entertainment and traditional fayre encompass a fanfare of barrel organs, showman's organs, street entertainers, a brass band playing a medley of popular tunes and a Victorian Fairground in full swing.

Gastronauts can enjoy a feast of traditional fayre. The delicious aroma of chestnuts roasting over an open fire or the mouthwatering taste of fish and chips cooked on an authentic 1930's range is sure to bring visitors a warm glow on a winter's night!

Bonfire night - without the bang ensures a truly memorable family evening, with the added safety of no fireworks.

Admission costs: £8.50 for adults and £4.50 for children. Limited availability and tickets must be pre-booked on 0121 520 8054. Gates open at 6.30pm and close at 10.00pm.
