PRESS RELEASE

Schools Out and a Timetable of Fun is In!

Half Term: Saturday 9th February - Sunday 17th February

Swap classrooms for cobbled streets and a timetable of holiday fun at the Black Country Living Museum from Saturday 9th February – Sunday 17th February, 2008.

Take a history lesson like no other and avoid the half term headache whilst keeping children absorbed for hours! Travel back in time to the early 1900s where modern conveniences like washing machines, cookers and bathrooms are just a twinkle in the eye and dolly tubs, black leaded grates and 'buckets and chuck its' are the must-have gadgets of the era!

Emma Middleton, Marketing Manager said: "Our programme of events give parents a head start at half term and are always very popular. A variety of activities keep children entertained and they absorb lots of fascinating facts without even realising it."

Discover the delights of playtime in the last century and banish boredom with hopscotch, hoops, whip and top, skittles and a variety of parlour games. Love is in the air as youngsters enjoy making valentine cards and crafts which take place in the old fashioned school room.
