

Building, Unbuilding, Rebuilding the NHS: A Heritage Study Day

Saturday 16 March 2019

9.00am Arrival, tea and coffee

9.15am Welcome

9.30am Work, Rest and Play: Exploring the Therapeutic Landscape for Hospitals, Asylums and Sanatoria

Dr Clare Hickman, University of Chester

An interactive session exploring the history of hospital and doctors' gardens.

10.15am The NHS at 70 Oral History Project

Dr Angela Whitecross

This will detail the shared memories of NHS buildings collected through the NHS at 70 oral history project.

11.00am Break

11.30am Tour of Museum

Kevin Goodman, BCLM

Kevin Goodman

Kevin is a BCLM Demonstrator and Medical History Interpreter. He has written several books on aspects of medical history and is currently writing an epidemiological history of the Black Country.

1.00pm Lunch

- 1.45pm      Community Health Buildings in the NHS
Simon Briercliffe, BCLM Historical Research Assistant
Simon will discuss the planned recreation of Lea Road Infant Welfare Centre at the Museum.
- Simon Briercliffe
Simon Briercliffe is a historical researcher at the Black Country Living Museum, and a doctoral researcher at the University of Birmingham studying Victorian Wolverhampton.
- 2.30pm      That's Our Idea for this Town
Ed Devane, University of Warwick
Ed will share his research into the austerity health centre at Tile Hill, Coventry, 1945-1958.
- 3.15              Break
- 3.30pm      NHS Buildings: And Why They Matter
Dr Ellen Stewart, University of Edinburgh
Ellen works at the intersection of medical sociology, social policy, and public administration. She has published widely on hospital closures, including in the book Publics and Their Health Systems: Rethinking Participation (2016),
- 4.15pm      End of Day